A PENTECOST REFLECTION

Harvard scholar Diana Eck, in her work entitled Encountering God (Boston: Beacon, 1993), reveals some surprising aspects of religion in the medieval church. In those days, the liturgical calendar did far more than determine what biblical texts were read each Sunday. The church calendar shaped the daily lives of the people. Festivals, saint's days, holy days, all lived and breathed in the world of the medieval church. It was the church's job to see that the marking of these days remained the dominant guiding force in daily life.

Professor Eck has discovered that Pentecost was one of the most unique and creatively celebrated days on the church's calendar. In 10th-century Rome, for example, the church really knew how to throw its own birthday party. In order to make the coming of the Holy Spirit a dramatic, dynamic event for their congregations, leaders of Pentecost services involved architecture, not just anthems.

The custom of painting heavenly scenes on the great domed and vaulted ceilings of cathedrals served not only to inspire the devout with blessed visions. It also disguised some discreet trap doors. These small openings were drilled through the cathedral ceiling to the rooftop. During the Pentecost worship service, some hapless servants would be drafted to clamber up on the roof. At the appropriate moment during the liturgy, they would release live doves through these holes. From out of the painted skies and clouds on the cathedral ceiling, swooping, diving symbols of a vitally present Holy Spirit would descend toward the people below.

At the same moment, the choirboys would break into the whooshing and drumming sound of a holy windstorm. Finally, as the doves were flying and the winds were rushing, the ceiling holes would once again be utilized -- as bushels upon bushels of rose petals were showered down upon the congregation. These red, flickering bits of flowers symbolized tongues of flame falling upon all who waited below in faith.

They called these openings to the sky in medieval churches "Holy Spirit holes."

Imagine the mystery, majesty and power such a service would bring into the hard-bitten lives of these Christians. Imagine how close and how involved each believer must have felt in receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit. Can you imagine that same kind of Spirit-breathing, breathtaking power and vitality blowing down from the ceilings of our churches today? Can the Holy Spirit get through the fire-code crawl spaces, the acoustic-tile ceilings and the rows of fluorescent lights to even find its way into our sanctuary?

Does our church need a Holy Spirit hole to open it outward and skyward to the Divine? In Diana Eck's words, "We need these Holy Spirit holes. Our churches need these skyward openings to the wind rush of God... Holy Spirit holes would be perpetual reminders to both the prophetic and the Pentecostal movements in our churches that our knowledge of God is not complete. They would ceaselessly remind us that no image or icon, no petal or flame can domesticate God's Spirit. Its symbolic images, like the dove and the wildfire, are images of utter freedom."

Have we created around ourselves a spiritual vacuum that allows no breath of wind to blow, no flame of fire to ignite? Instead of experiencing doves and flames swooping out from "Holy Spirit holes," are the well-insulated ceilings of our churches, like our souls, closed to any surprise visitations from above?

Do you trust the wind? It is the wind-like quality of the Spirit that surprises us, that takes us where we don't want to go, that is unpredictable, that drives us toward stillness, that drives us toward wholeness, that drives us toward shelter and safety.

Are there any Holy Spirit holes open in the ceiling of our church, your home, your workplace, your car, your school? Are you willing to become a Holy Spirit hole in the life of this church?

The first group of religious women dedicated exclusively to the professional medical care of the sick in mission areas is called the Medical Mission Sisters. Founded in 1925 as a Holy Spirit hole in the Roman Catholic church (its world headquarters is in Rome, its U.S. center in Philadelphia), the Medical Mission Sisters used to sing a couple of signature songs. The most recent is called "Breath of God" and its words are:

Blow through me, Breath of God,
Blow through me; like a pipe, like a reed, making melody
The cosmic song in me, Breath of God.

An earlier version is called "Breath of the Spirit." After each verse, if memory serves, came this refrain:
Fill the earth, birth it to birth and blow where you will; blow, blow, blow, 'til I be
But Breath of the Spirit blowing in me.

Blow, Holy Spirit holes, blow. Let God's Spirit breathe through you.

FROM THE TRUSTEES

TRUSTEES WORK—We have finally defeated Winter again, our RG&E bill has indicated that the Winter of 2018/2019 was 10% colder than the 2017/2018 Winter.

Our big project this Summer will be repairing, re-sealing and re-stripping our main parking lot. This work could close down our parking lot for a time, your patience will be appreciated.

We are in the process of planning the installation of a new electronic carillon system that will give us the opportunity to sound bells and play musical numbers, this will be financed by the Betty Curry's memorial fund.

AMERICAN FLAGS—From May 26th to June 14th (Flag Day) we will be collecting old and unused American flags that will be disposed of in a proper way by the Chili American Legion. A box is in the Narthex area for your flags.

VETERAN BRICKS—Two new veteran bricks were recently installed at the base of the Richard W. Mitchel Flag Pole for Clifford B. Forer and Hans P. Strasser. We now have a total of 52 veteran bricks, 33 deceased veterans and 19 living veterans. A copy of all these veteran bricks is available at our veteran board.

Our next opportunity for presenting bricks will be at Veterans Day Service on November 10th, God bless our military veterans and our nation.

WOMEN OF THE ELCA

After a very busy year and long winter, June finds us coming to our break for the summer. On Tuesday, June 11th at 6:00 pm, we will gather for our end of year potluck picnic supper. As always, there will be good food and fellowship. If you are interested in attending, there will be a sign-up sheet on the table in the Narthex. Contact Ann Seppa if you have any questions. (889-4413).

Some of the ladies attended the 2019 Spring Communion Brunch at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Pittsford. Maggie Harris from Community Lutheran Ministry ("Maggie's Place") was our guest speaker. She talked to us about her Summer Day Camp program for the children in her area. She is in need of donations of socks, towels, swim suits, snacks, juices for the kids. Their camp starts the beginning of July. The Women of the ELCA are asking the congregation for their help. If you would like to donate any of the above items, you can bring them to church. There will be a donation box in the Narthex. We will be collecting during the month of June. Anything you can do to help will be very much appreciated.

The Women of the ELCA support Maggie's Place every year. Maggie recently sent us a letter thanking us for our generosity. In her letter she wrote, "God created a plan for our lives before we were Born. We have no idea who we are going to meet and what an impact would have on each other's life. I love God and I know he loves each of us. He (God) gives the best gifts of all".

On June 8th at 11:00 am, the ladies of the ELCA will be hosting Hans Strasser's Memorial reception in the Augsburg Room. We are in need of dessert items for Hans' reception. If you would like to donate, there will be a sign-up sheet on the table in the Narthex. Any questions, please contact Ann Seppa (889-4413).

LEADERSHIP AND PLANNING MEETING (we will be discussing the upcoming WELCA Upstate Synod Convention that will be held on October 4, 5 & 6)

Date: Wednesday, June 12th

Time: 11:30 am

Place: Transfiguration Lutheran Church
3760 Culver Road
Rochester, NY 14622

If you are interested in attending, please contact Barbara King at 293-7136 and bring a bag lunch. Beverage and dessert will be provided.

We continue to increase our membership and hope that this will continue as we move through the year. There is always room for more and we always have yummy refreshments too!

Ann Seppa, Secretary

CHURCH AND COMMUNITY

We had a great collection of can tabs taken to the Synod Assembly in May. Thank you for helping! We will keep the jar in the Narthex to continue collecting throughout the year.

WOMEN OF THE ELCA

Dear Christian Family,

The Women of the ELCA are once again sponsoring THE OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD BOXES. We are going to try something different this year. We are collecting a list of items per month starting in April. The box along with a list of items for that month will be on the table in the Narthex. Each month there will be a different list of items. This will give the Youth plenty of items to pack boxes in November.

The month of June: combs, brushes, soap, lip balm, wash cloths, sewing kits for girls, yo-yo, putty, slinky, jump rope, fishing kit, little balls, mini games, mini puzzles, balls with pump, Play-Doh/accessories, and toy necklaces and bracelets.

A few notes of what can not be in the boxes:
Fighting toys like knives, guns
No liquids (paint, nail polish, bubbles)
No candy or toothpaste

If you have any questions, please feel free to talk to me or call me at 426-0382.

Happy Father's Day
to all the heroes and role models.

Thank you for everything you have done for family.

We love you, Fathers, with all our hearts!

God cares about the relationship between fathers and their kids—
"He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of children to their fathers... [Malachi 4:6 ESV]

By the blessings and grace of God, Pastor Wilck came to Our Saviour 15 years ago! It has been a wonderful, productive, lively and loving period. We ask God to give us many more years to come with Pastor. Please join us in the Narthex for cake on June 16 to thank Pastor.

Volunteer at Camp Joy this summer! Since its founding in 1982, Camp Joy – a week-long overnight summer camp for developmentally disabled adults - has thrived as an ENTIRELY volunteer based organization. To maintain our Christ-centered, inspirational, fun-filled experience for the 100 individuals who attend camp every year, we need volunteers like you! Camp is held at the Rotary Sunshine Campus in Rush, NY, and this year will be June 16-21 (Sunday-Friday). Both full- and part-time staff are needed, full room and board are provided for full-time staff, and there is absolutely no monetary requirement for volunteers and no previous experience with this population needed! Our need has become dire as we often keep a waiting list of campers wishing to attend but are unable to accommodate due to an insufficient number of volunteers. Please consider being a part of this outstanding organization and share the experience of a lifetime to continue to make this camp possible for so many individuals who desire this fulfilling experience. For more information or to register as a volunteer, visit our website: www.campjoyny.org, or call (585) 371-8851 with any additional questions.
